

EXECUTIVE MBA ADVANTAGE

Programme design A unique schedule that allows busy executives to balance work and personal life, while making a strategic investment in their careers.

Applied learning The case method of teaching and the EMBA projects enable students to immediately put into practice the techniques learned during the Programme.

Elite peer group The EMBA class consists of an elite peer group of accomplished mid-career professionals who represent a wide cross-section of industries and roles, resulting in rich, cross-functional perspectives and productive collaborations.

Faculty expertise The LUMS faculty are prominent architects in the creation of management, finance, innovation, and strategy best practices. During the Programme, students collaborate with them to develop the advanced management capabilities needed to realise their organisations' strategic goals.

LUMS Community Upon acceptance to the Programme, every LUMS EMBA student gains access to the LUMS tight-knit community of influential thought leaders, Research Centres and 27,000+ executive alumni.

EXECUTIVE MBA

SULEMAN DAWOOD SCHOOL OF BUSINESS (SDSB)

"LUMS EMBA is a very rigorous programme where case methodology is being used to give us insight on almost every business situation we encounter on a day to day basis. Moreover, LUMS has the best teaching faculty available in Pakistan having knowledge of every dimension of the business world."

Atif Munir
EMBA 2020
Manager Operations
Summit Bank Ltd.

"The Executive MBA has been a life-changing experience for me. This degree taught me how professional businesses are run. The case study method exposes students to the challenges faced by larger organisations and how they overcome real time business obstacles. One learns not only from the finest faculty in the country, but while interacting in an elite peer group we enhance each other's knowledge of our respective industries."
